10. Please provide any other information you may consider relevant.

11. Please suggest how Asha can help in community development and empowerment in India.

Asha can help in this community by supporting quality education since most of the government schools around and a few private schools depend on only examination result and rote learning as their parameters for evaluating a child.

12. Please attach your last year's audit report to this application.

13. Please feel free to attach any additional sheets and/or information such as brochures, press reports, photographs etc. relating your organization and its work.
