

Asha for Education,* San Diego cordially invites you to a night of food, fun and entertainment.

Come together to enjoy delicious food, make new friends and learn how Asha for Education is making a difference.

Your presence will provide education and new hope to underprivileged kids in India.

It will help toward AshaSD projects: a mentally and physically challenged girls' residential school (Kerala), a teachers' training and research Institute (Karnataka) and a transitional school for children in slavery (UP).
