

Redefining Development in India

Bringing about socio-economic changes through employment generation based on environmental conservation

COME LISTEN TO VELLORE SRINIVASAN

Student Union Room # 3016
University of Toledo
28 MAY 08, 7.00-8.00 pm

Founder/President, Exnora Green Cross (EGC), Vellore, TamilNadu
Ashoka Fellow (2003) of Ashoka Innovators, Washington D.C.

Invited speaker: 10th Annual AID-US Conference in Buffalo, May 24-26.
Visit to Michigan/Toledo sponsored by RIM (Rejuvenate India Movement)

Premise: Top 3 natural resources (Sunlight, Manpower, & Solid Waste) not fully utilized.

Recognition: Zero Waste Management (ZWM) model selected by UN-Habitat as "Good Practice" in 2006.

Accomplishment: Design of projects like Solid & Liquid Waste Management, Vellore Hills Restoration Project, Indian Green Force (IGF), Vegetable Roof Garden, Enviro-friendly wedding, etc. Establishment of National Environment Management Training and Research Center, offering training on the VELLORE MODEL ZWM

Network: Collaborative work with Local, State and Central governments.

Local contact: Swami Ganapathy sganapathy@yahoo.com
R. Shantaram r_shantaram@yahoo.com
Ram Ramanujam ramram@umich.edu

How you can help: Make a tax deductible contribution

Sponsor: an urban Change Maker @ Rs. 5000 per month.
a rural Change Maker @ Rs. 2500 per month.

ANY SUPPORT WILL BE GRATEFULLY ACCEPTED.

Ei Exnora Green Cross - Vellore